

Quotes on Grace

“For grace is given not because we have done good works, but in order that we may be able to do them.” – Saint Augustine of Hippo

“Grace isn’t a little prayer you chant before receiving a meal. It’s a way to live. The law tells me how crooked I am. Grace comes along and straightens me out.” – Dwight Lyman Moody

“Grace is the voice that calls us to change and then gives us the power to pull it off.” – Max Lucado

“Courage is grace under pressure.” – Ernest Hemingway

“Grace is something you can never get but can only be given. There’s no way to earn it or deserve it or bring about anymore than you can deserve the taste of raspberries and cream or earn good looks.” – Frederick Buechner

“Grace needs to be the air we breathe, the atmosphere we live in, whether in church or in the home.” – Allen Snapp

“Grace, like water flows to the lowest part.” – Philip Yancey

“What gives me the most hope every day is God’s grace; knowing that his grace is going to give me strength for whatever I face, knowing that nothing is a surprise to God.” – Rick Warren

“Grace is sufficient even though we huff and puff with all our might to try and find something or someone that it cannot cover. Grace is enough.” – Brennan Manning

“A man can no more take in a supply of grace for the future than he can eat enough today to last him for the next 6 months, nor can he inhale sufficient air into his lungs with one breath to sustain life for a week to come. We are permitted to draw upon God’s store of grace from day to day as we need it.” – Dwight L. Moody

“Grace puts its hand on the boasting mouth, and shuts it once for all.” – Charles Spurgeon

“Nothing but grace makes a man so humble and, at the same time, so glad.” – C.H. Spurgeon

“Grace releases and affirms. It doesn’t smother. Grace values the dignity of individuals. It doesn’t destroy. Grace supports and encourages. It isn’t jealous or suspicious.” – Charles Swindoll

“When grace moves in... guilt moves out.” – Max Lucado

“Grace is the love that gives, that loves the unlovely and the unlovable.” – Oswald C. Hoffmann

“Showing grace to others is about showing kindness even when they don’t deserve it.” – Dawn Klinge

“Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come; ‘Tis grace has brought me safe thus far and grace will lead me home.” – John Newton

“Wherever life plants you, bloom with grace.” – avemateiu.com

Patience is the exercise of present grace. — Joni Overton-Jung, CSB

What we most need is the prayer of fervent desire for growth in grace, expressed in patience, meekness, love, and good deeds.

(Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 4:3–5)

Give us grace for to-day; feed the famished affections;

(Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 17:5 Give)

Grace and Truth are potent beyond all other means and methods.

(Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 67:23)

Throughout all generations both before and after the Christian era, the Christ, as the spiritual idea, — the reflection of God, — has come with some measure of power and grace to all prepared to receive Christ, Truth.

(Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 333:19–23)

The miracle of grace is no miracle to Love.

(Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 494:15–19)

Love is the fulfilling of the law: it is grace, mercy, and justice.

(Miscellaneous Writings 1883–1896, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 11:3–4)

The increasing necessity for relying on God to defend us against the subtler forms of evil, turns us more unreservedly to Him for help, and thus becomes a means of grace.

(Miscellaneous Writings 1883–1896, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 115:22–25)

When a hungry heart petitions the divine Father-Mother God for bread, it is not given a stone, — but more grace, obedience, and love.

(Miscellaneous Writings 1883–1896, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 127:11–13)

May the God of all grace give you peace.

(Miscellaneous Writings 1883–1896, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 159:7)

A little more grace, a motive made pure, a few truths tenderly told, a heart softened, a character subdued, a life consecrated, would restore the right action of the mental mechanism, and make manifest the movement of body and soul in accord with God.

(Miscellaneous Writings 1883–1896, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 354:15)

Christians are commanded to grow in grace.
(Unity of Good, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 14:12 (only))

No greater hope have we than in right thinking and right acting, and faith in the blessing of fidelity, courage, patience, and grace.
(The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 209:5)

“For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.” – John 1:17

And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. (Ezra 9:8)

For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. (Psalms 84:11)

So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck. (Proverbs 3:22)

Surely he scorneth the scorers: but he giveth grace unto the lowly. (Proverbs 3:34)

She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee. (Proverbs 4:9)

And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him. (Luke 2:40)

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. (John 1:14)

¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me. And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

(John 1:15–17)

And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. (Acts 4:33)

But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. (Acts 20:24)

And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. (Acts 20:32)

But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. (Romans 5:15)

Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. (Romans 5:20, 21)

Romans 5-6

For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. (Romans 12:3)

And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (II Corinthians 9:8)

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. (Colossians 3:16)

Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. (Colossians 4:6)

And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: For our God is a consuming fire.

(Hebrews 12:27–29)

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

(II Peter 1:2)

But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen. (II Peter 3:18)
